New York. March 22, 1858.

To WILLIAM S. BATES, esq., President, Chauncer Shaffer, esq., Secretary, and others, of a meeting held in behalf of the Fire Department of the City of New York.

GENTLEMEN: Your note of the 18th inst., requesting me to preach a sermon before the members of the Fire Department, at the Academy of Music, on the evening of the 28th inst., has been received. I at first shrunk from a compliance, feeling the great responsibility of such a position, but a sense of personal obligation to some of you, and the profound respect which I have fine the mobile and generous body of men whom you represent, and the hope of making a humble contribution to the mean supplyed for the present and eternal good, induces me to overcome my reluctance and accept your invitation so courteously tendered. With much respect, I am, gentlemen, Your most humble servain, WILLIAM F. CORBITT, WILLIAM S. BATES, esq., President; GRAUNCEY SHAFFER, esq., Secretary, and others.

CARD.—PETERSON'S REPLY to PUTNAM.

One of P. PUTNAM—Dear Sir: I am astonished to see that the Card, which you publish in The New-York Tribune, and New-York Evening Post of yesterday, and in The New-York Daily Times of this day, differs materially from the one which you showed to me on Saturday, in the presence of Mesers. Wm. Henry Brown and E. D. Long, and the publication of which I agreed to authorize.

The card, in fact, has been altered, interpolated, and important parts of it omitted. Most essential is the omission in your card of the letter which Mr. Irving did write, and which I stipulated from the first should go in withit in the same communication. This omission, coupled with the general tenor of the altera-tions, may lead the public to infer that Mr. Irving never wrote any letter of praise to Mr. Maitland at all.

The use of my name in the card, as it appears in print, is therefore, wholly unauthorized. I supposed, after your promis-NIBLO'S GARDEN. — OPENING NIGHT,

THE GREAT NEW STORY

PRANCIS S. SMITH, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY.

At the counters of all News Agents and Booksellers in it is entitled

THE CHILD OF CHARITY;

THE CHILD OF CHARITY;

OR,

WAIPS ON THE SEA OF HUMANITY.

A Romance of Every-Day Life.

This is one of the author's best stories, and one that will make its mark wherever it is read. Those who have read "Eveleen Wilson," "The Emigrant," Abandoned Wite," "The Vestmaker's Apprentice," etc., will not require any indomement of this popular and powerful subthor at our hands to insure their perusal of "Maggie, the Child of Charity." Those who have never made Mr. Smith's acquaintance (if there be any such, will miss one of the best stories ever written by an American author, if they do not read his last and best story. From present indications, however, there will be very few intelligent people in this community who will let it escape them.

THE USE OF FARINA IN ITS MOST HEALTHFUL FORM—The working of Farina, as connected ed with the peculiar process by which WING'S FARINA CRACKERS are made, is known only to Mr. WING'S establish-

The superior quality of his CRACKERS has already caused and have succeeded in selling them to a small extent. The selling of such Crackers for Farinahas a tendency to injure the reputation of TRUE FARINA CRACKERS MADE BY MR.

Errors of this character, however, are usually wing properly exposed.
FARINA CRACKERS ARE MADE ONLY BY MR. WING.

They are not made by others because the process is unknown to them, nor have they suitable works—these require a scientific hrough the different processes.

The practice required in order to prepare and work the rial successfully is a serious impediment to others.

The impossibility of arranging the sponge without exp in this particular branch or kind of material, and the critical knowledge indispensable in producing such an extremely light and nourishing substance as WING'S PARINA CRACKERS.

cannot be accomplished without consummate skill and the means necessary to carry it out.

The whole business requires great care and good judgment, and must be carried on extensively in order to make it successful or.

The objects to be attained by Mr. WING were to pre superior article at a price suitable for all classes. For this he has labored long, and subjected himself to an adequate outlay of capi-make FARINA CRACKERS, is simply a device resorted to in the hope of selling more of an article than they otherwise would do, if offered under the proper name.

With the view of a largely-extended business, Mr. WING has continued for some time past the present low price for his

City of New York, that with the great amount of hand-labor to stowed on WING'S FARINA CRACKERS, it is impossible for and not advance the price, unless absolutely necessary.

The increased use of WING'S FARINA CRACKERS, with as well as many persons in various positions in life, whose powers have been more or less weakened by sedentary habits or occupations, is strong proof of the healthful and beneficial results which tions, is strong proof of the healthful and benchmar require which have attended their use.

Their great neutrishing properties, and the case with which the stomach digests this pleasant food, are well established, and there can be, on testing them, no doubt of this fact, vis: that the same weight of WING'S CRACKERS will make more good blood-and act more kindly upon the delicate texture of the stomach' than anything else ever introduced in this or any other form of bread.

All true FARINA CRACKERS have the name WING them, and those wishing to buy should sek for WINGS CRACKERS.
